

Press release

Automobilia Ladenburg Auction 11&12 May 2018 - in the Seidel Ladenburg auction house

The Seidel auction house is presenting two separate catalogues during its Spring Auction 2018. Firstly, as usual, there will be a catalogue featuring automobile rarities from almost every manufacturer under the sun, and also a separate special "racing only" catalogue - this deals exclusively with the subject of motor racing. This catalogue will feature numerous highlights, including part of the catalogue which is dedicated to the racing career enjoyed by Dieter Schornstein. In addition, all the numerous trophies won by the exceptional racing driver Alberto Ascari will be available for bidding. In addition numerous photo albums, exceptional photographs, racing sport spare parts, racing suits worn by Derek Bell, Hans Joachim Stuck, Timo Bernhard and other motorsport giants will be available for bidding.

The special catalogue alone contains 1000 lots. The automobile catalogue also stands out with rarities such as a private photo album owned by Laura Ferrari - Enzo Ferrari's wife. Rare sales catalogue items, for example sales folders from the Daimler Motor Company from the year 1909, a sales catalogue from Emile Roger (the first Benz Motor Car salesman abroad) are also available. One specific batch will certainly be very special - a document entitled "Confirmation of fusion between the Daimler Motor Company and the Benz & Cie company (entry in commercial register)". Furthermore numerous rare posters such as the Klausenrennen 1934, Grand Prix Bern 1939, Grand Prix Bern 1937, an event poster for the Automobile Exhibition Berlin 1905 ... and the whole thing is rounded off with a catalogue containing many spare parts and accessories in addition to engines such as a Porsche 356 1600 Carrera engine. The catalogue set includes more than 4000 lots in total!
